Education Support
Professionals play a very valuable role
throughout America's public schools. Today's support
professionals
provide invaluable
services that enable students to learn in positive, supportive environments. They will be given
stemmed rose buds with a note, "For all you do, this bud's for you"

Sciuto (B&W),
Lyndsay Tapases
(WSET), Joan
Foster and Rachel Gagen.

Parents are invited
into classrooms for a hands-on experience of what the day is like for their child, as well as to have lunch
with their child.

16
FRIDAY

Substitute Educators Day: A focus on these professional educators who perform a vital function in the maintenance and continuity of daily
education. Substitutes are the educational bridges when regular classroom educators
are absent.

School is Cool Day: Ice cream bars will be given to each student during lunch.

DDC Leaders will read
essays about their anticipated careers to primary grades.
