

SMS Sunday Message: October 11

Good evening, Spartan Family! This is Matthew A. Mason, proud principal of Sandusky Middle School, and here is the Sunday Message for the week of October 12 - 16. This message has been forwarded to our SMS family via email and can also be found on our website under the Sunday Message tab.

- Parents, this is a reminder that 6th grade students who designated hybrid as their preferred model will begin in-face learning on Tuesday, October 13. Students will be split into two cohorts: Cohort A and B. These cohort lists are being finalized, and we will communicate which cohort your child is in on tomorrow, Monday, October 12. Thank you for your patience with this process.
- Families, starting on Tuesday, October 13, the Remote Learning schedule that students have been using to Zoom with their teachers will not be used. With about half of our students returning for the hybrid model, we will begin using our regular schedule for both remote and hybrid students. Attached to our email you will find our regular school schedule. Students will be able to Zoom to attend regular class periods. Teachers will give direction on when the best time is to Zoom into a class. Students will still have the ability to schedule a Zoom meeting with a teacher on Monday afternoons, and we will also be providing Zoom times for specific periods from 2:45 - 3:15. Again, this will begin on Tuesday, October 13. Our school schedule can also be found on our website under the “About Us” tab.
Thank you.

Please check today's email, our Twitter account (@Spartans_SMS), our Facebook page and our website for more important information on school events. Again, this is Matthew A. Mason, and SMS is pleased to serve our community!
